On Mission

In 2014 we fulfilled PAC's mission and vision locally, regionally and globally in tangible ways.

Locally

- We grew spiritually as a church, recognizing the effectiveness of reading the Bible daily, praying daily, responding to the Holy Spirit and sharing Jesus with others.
- We celebrated 126 adults, teens and children choosing to follow Jesus.
- We baptized 56 Christ followers.
- We welcomed 47 adults into membership.
- We offered 101 small groups with 1,175 adults, teens and children participating.
- We provided $247,950 in assistance plus 1,470 bags of groceries to help local families in need.
- We received 22 donated vehicles and provided 210 free service appointments to single moms.
- We shared the Gospel with 506 children through the help of 200 volunteers at PAC Summer Camp.

Regionally

- We celebrated Element Church's independent status.
- We shared Summer Camp with a sister Alliance church at the Jersey Shore.
- We partnered with Plainsboro Township to celebrate community through three Summer Blast park events.
- We received over 500 donated gifts to the PAC Christmas Store for the He Cares We Care families we serve. Surplus gifts blessed 217church, a women's shelter, and Habitat for Humanity.

Globally

- We sent 251 adults, teens and children to mission fields stateside and overseas on 14 teams.
- We celebrated 50% of our total mission team members serving on the field for the very first time. We also engaged 73% of our staff on teams.
- We strengthened our ministry partnerships in India through our first mission to that field.
